of eighteen years.)

Comes now CLIENT, by and through counsel, ATTORNEY of FIRM, and hereby moves this court to restore legal custody of CHILD and CHILD to her. This Motion is based on the fact that physical custody of CHILD and CHILD were restored to their mother for a trial home placement on approximately June 12, 2002. The Court authorized a transfer of custody if the trial home placement was successful over the next week or so and upon the approval of the Guardian ad Litem. CASEWORKER has been providing Family Preservation Services and feels the trial home placement has been successful and he is recommending that custody and guardianship of CHILD and CHILD be restored to their mother, CLIENT. See, Exhibit 1: Family Reunification Court Report, dated June 28, 2002, attached.

The Assistant Attorney General, was contacted regarding this matter on approximately June 21st and has not voiced an objection to the matter. The Guardian ad Litem, stipulates to this Motion for restoration of custody and guardianship.

DATED this ____ day of _____, 2003.
